

Mission Hospice Presents:
The Caring for the Dying
Seminars ~ 2009

~~~~~
Facilitated by Rev. Linda Siddall, Chaplain &
Director of Community Outreach

Part 1 ~ Caring for the Dying :
What Every Caregiver Should Know

Through gentle instruction, insightful stories, and shared experiences, participants will learn about the physical, emotional, and spiritual aspects of the dying process, and ways to give caring support when accompanying a loved one on this incredible journey.

Please call for registration and location.

9:30 a.m. ~ 12:30 p.m.

Sat., 2/21; Sat., 5/16; and Sat., 11/7

$10/person

Prerequisite for Part 2: Caring for the Dying: Compassionate Practices

Part 2 ~ Caring for the Dying :
Compassionate Practices

This session teaches practical ways to become a compassionate witness to the dying when sitting with suffering; listening with sympathy, empathy, and presence; understanding the power of ritual; and more.

Please call for registration and location.

9:30 a.m. ~ 12:30 p.m.

Sat., 3/21; Sat., 6/20; and Sat., 12/5

$10/person

Seating is limited. Advance registration is required.

Mission Hospice provides quality professional care and compassionate support for terminally ill patients and their families, while offering education about end-of-life issues for the San Mateo County community.

Mission Hospice of San Mateo County
1900 O'Farrell Street, Suite 200
San Mateo, CA 94403
650.554.1000
650.554.1001 (fax)