Thursday, June 22, 6:30pm | Being Mortal | www.AtulGawande.com

We all die – so why don't we die well? This PBS documentary follows surgeon Atul Gawande, MD (author of the bestseller by the same name) as he explores the relationships of physicians to their dying patients. The film will be followed by a panel discussion. Presented in partnership with Foster City Village and Villages of San Mateo County.

Thursday, July 27, 6:30pm | Extremis | www.facebook.com/ExtremisMovie

This Oscar-nominated film documents the hard choices faced by people with loved ones in the ICU – and who would have benefited from earlier conversations with physicians and family. We'll be joined by Dr. Jess Zitter, one of the physicians in the film, who will read from her new book, Extreme Measures.

Thursday, August 24, 6:30pm | The Power of Two | www.ThePowerofTwoMovie.com

This award-winning film tells the story of identical twins Isabel and Ana Stenzel, their battle with cystic fibrosis, and survival through double lung transplants. Based on their memoir, the story is powerful and inspiring. Isabel, a Mission Hospice & Home Care bereavement counselor, will join us.

Thursday, September 28, 6:30pm | Voices of Grief | www.VoicesofGrief.org

Beautiful and transformative, this film shares a fresh perspective on how we might navigate through grief. Authors, experts, and personal stories explore community, compassion, and connection. Filmmakers Kathy and Arnie Sparins will join us for a discussion after the film.

Thursday, October 12, 6:30pm | Through Our Own Eyes

Watch communities talk about what matters most for their end-of-life care in this film produced for the British National Health Service. Producers Mary Matthiesen (now with Mission Hospice) and Nicola Rudge will join us for a conversation about how to plan for your own future care.

Thurs., Nov 9, 6:30pm | Death Makes Life Possible | www.DeathMakesLifePossible.com

How might facing our mortality inspire us to live our lives more fully? A cultural anthropologist explores how people across the world are learning to live well and die better – and shows how we can make the most of every moment.
